EARLY YEARS FOUNDATION STAGE

Early Years Foundation Stage Statements

Communication and Language

- Hold conversation when engaged in back-and-forth exchanges with their teachers and peers.
- Express their ideas and feelings about their experiences using full sentences, including use of past, present and future tenses and making use of conjunctions, with modelling and support from their teacher.

Personal, social and emotional development

- Show an understanding of their own feelings and those of others, and begin to regulate their behaviour accordingly.
- Set and work towards simple goals, being able to wait for what they want and control their immediate impulses when appropriate.
- Give focused attention to what the teacher says, responding appropriately even when engaged in activity, and show an ability to follow instructions involving several ideas or actions.

Managing self

- Be confident to try new activities and show independence, resilience and perseverance in the face of challenge.
- Explain the reasons for rules, know right from wrong and try to behave accordingly.
- Manage their own basic hygiene and personal needs, including dressing, going to the toilet and understanding the importance of healthy food choices.

Building relationships

- Work and play cooperatively and take turns with others.
- Form positive attachments to adults and friendships with peers.
- Show sensitivity to their own and others' needs.

Understanding the world

- Talk about the lives of people around them and their roles in society.

What a pupil at Mytham is like at this stage

Children leaving EYFS are able to manage their emotions and are sensitive towards the needs of others. They know how to be a good friend and can share and respond to the needs of their peers. Children understand the importance of healthy habits and diet, and can be independent during simple self-care. Children display resilience and positive attitudes, ready for the learning ahead in KS1.

National Curriculum Objectives for KS1

Developing confidence and responsibility and making the most of their abilities

- a. to recognise what they like and dislike, what is fair and unfair, and what is right and wrong;
- b. to share their opinions on things that matter to them and explain their views;
- c. to recognise, name and deal with their feelings in a positive way;
- d. to think about themselves, learn from their experiences and recognise what they are good at;
- e. how to set simple goals.

What a pupil at Mytham is like at this stage

Children show increasing knowledge and awareness of ways we can make healthy choices for our bodies and minds. They know the basics of personal hygiene and make independent choices around handwashing and ways we can prevent germs from spreading. Healthy choices with some adult support are becoming a way of life for our KS1 children.

END OF KEY STAGE 1

National Curriculum Objectives for KS1

Breadth of opportunities

During the key stage, pupils should be taught the knowledge, skills and understanding through opportunities to:

- a. take and share responsibility (for example, for their own behaviour; by helping to make classroom rules and following them; by looking after pets well);
- b. feel positive about themselves (for example, by having their achievements recognised and by being given positive feedback about themselves);
- c. take part in discussions (for example, talking about topics of school, local, national, European, Commonwealth and global concern, such as 'where our food and raw materials for industry come from');
- d. make real choices (for example, between healthy options in school meals, what to watch on television, what games to play, how to spend and save money sensibly);
- e. meet and talk with people (for example, with outside visitors such as religious leaders, police officers, the school nurse);
- f. develop relationships through work and play (for example, by sharing equipment with other pupils or their friends in a group task);
- g. consider social and moral dilemmas that they come across in everyday life (for example, aggressive behaviour, questions of fairness, right and wrong, simple political issues, use of money, simple environmental issues);
- h. ask for help (for example, from family and friends, midday supervisors, older pupils, the police.)

National Curriculum Objectives for KS2

Developing confidence and responsibility and making the most of their abilities

- A. to talk and write about their opinions, and explain their views, on issues that affect themselves and society;
- b. to recognise their worth as individuals by identifying positive things about themselves and their achievements, seeing their mistakes, making amends and setting personal goals;
- c. to face new challenges positively by collecting information, looking for help, making responsible choices, and taking action;
- d. to recognise, as they approach puberty, how people's emotions change at that time and how to deal with their feelings towards themselves, their family and others in a positive way;
- e. about the range of jobs carried out by people they know, and to understand how they can develop skills to make their own contribution in the future;
- f. to look after their money and realise that future wants and needs may be met through saving.

What a pupil at Mytham is like at this stage

Children have a deep understanding of how to lead a healthy lifestyle, and ways that this is achievable in their own circumstances. They have a broad and deep understanding about making informed decisions about diet, exercise and the importance of positive daily routines. They can articulate their choices to others and explain these clearly.
